THANK YOU MEMBERS!

Hello Rutgers PBLers! We wanted to take time and thank you all for helping leave a "Legacy of Leadership"! From your passion at General Meetings and involvement at NFLC to your commitment to Community Service and excellence at Fundraising, you have all demonstrated your love and dedication to our organization. You are what makes Rutgers Phi Beta Lambda great. It is because of each and every one of you that Rutgers PBL is the ninth largest chapter in the nation and why we were recognized as the "Largest Local Delegation" at NFLC. We are "Revolutionary" and we look forward to leaving a mark in the Rutgers community and seeing you all at Dining with the Distinguished on Friday, December 2nd. As a member of Rutgers PBL, you are part of something greater - you are part of the largest student career organization in the world and have the opportunity to leave your own legacy of leadership everyday. We wish you all a Happy & Relaxing Thanksgiving Break and thank each and every one of you for being such an amazing member of our great organization!

LEGACY REVIEW:

Last December, Rutgers PBL's Dining with the Distinguished brought in about 200 students and professionals for a night of causal networking and good food. This year Rutger PBL intends on hosting the sixth annual Dining with the Distinguished and making it bigger and better than last year. With representatives from companies such as Northwestern Mutual, Gucci, Bank of America Merrill Lynch, Ernst and Young, and more, you wont's want to miss out. For more information visit our site:

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

TIP:

Being confident when dining and networking with individuals is a key aspect to interacting in a successful manner. Giving a good, firm handshake and having good posture is the way to really impress and express. Along with that, introducing yourself in a brief, but memorable manner is

LAST MEETING RECAP:

Rutgers PBL held its first ever Case Study Night at its last general meeting. Members had the opportunity to work a case study from prompt to presentation and then present in front of two guest judges and former PBL Presidents. Rutgers Beanies were awarded to the winning team and all members in attendance had a great time meeting new members and working with the E-Board.

NEXT MEETING:

Our next meeting is Tuesday,
November 29, in Tillett Hall,
Rm 242
